

The 5th Igorot International Consultation Souvenir Program

“Indescribably Grand.” This is how Martha Clevenger of the Missouri Historical Society described the 1904 World’s Fair in St. Louis, Missouri in a book, “Diaries and Letters From The 1904 World’s Fair,” which she edited.

“Indescribably Grand” is also a fitting description of the 5th Igorot International Consultation in St. Louis, Missouri on July 1 – 4, 2004. One hundred years ago, a group of indigenous tribes from North Central Philippines called Igorots, were on display at the 1904 World’s Fair in St. Louis, Missouri. One hundred years later, descendants of these Igorots return to St. Louis to participate in the centennial celebration of the 1904 World’s Fair and to attend the 5th Igorot International Consultation. This is an historic event. In attendance will be people from all over the globe and from all walks of life. They will come to participate and experience an Igorot cultural and education extravaganza – workshops, seminars, exhibits, trade booths, an ecumenical memorial service, a grand reunion; a showcase of Igorot pride, intelligence, simplicity, and vision for the future.

You are invited to this cultural extravaganza and to invest in this endeavor for the benefit of future generations and of society at large. For more information go to the IGO website at www.IgorotGlobal.org and...

We invite you to be a corporate or individual sponsor to this historic event. Your names will be prominently displayed in the souvenir program and will be accorded certain privileges. You may also purchase an advertising space in the Souvenir Program of the 5th Igorot International Consultation. This souvenir publication will be worth more than just a display of printed material in your living room – it is an historical record.

For more information on sponsorship and advertising rates, please refer to the reverse or next page. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Tim Botengan
